

HAPPINESS

That day, when she woke up Aurora couldn't imagine what would happen to her.

It was late, so she went to class quickly, but she forgot her notebook and thought

"Oh, Sister Carmen is going to punish me." However the nun only said "it doesn't matter." Her friend murmured "she might be sick, she is friendly" and both girls smiled.

Suddenly, the Superior Mother opened the door and told Aurora "please, come with me."

The girl wondered if she had done something wrong, since it was unusual that she interrupted the class.

Few minutes later, Aurora couldn't believe what she was seeing at the end of the hall.

Her parents were there. She ran towards them and hugged her mother.

Aurora had been living in the nuns boarding school for three years ,because her mother was all this time very ill.

Now, she had come to return home together.

That day, Aurora understood the meaning of the word "HAPPINESS"

By Pilar Parra (2NI 19A)